

Strato Inc.

Terms and Conditions of Purchase

1. Acceptance of Terms and Conditions of Purchase

1.1 Seller agrees to be bound by and to comply with: (a) all terms and provisions set forth herein; (b) all terms and provisions set forth in the purchase order to which these terms and conditions of purchase are attached or are referenced therein; and (c) any amendments, supplements, or updates that comply with the terms of the Amendment or Modifications Section 29 below. All of (a), (b) and (c) in this Section 1.1 and all specifications or other documents referred to therein are hereinafter collectively defined as the "Order" and the purchase order to which these terms and conditions apply is individually "the Face of the Order". Seller's acceptance of the Order shall occur upon the earlier of: (a) Seller's signing and returning the acknowledgment copy of the Face of the Order, or (b) Seller's commencement of manufacturing or shipment of goods or performance of services under the Order.

1.2 Any reference on the Face of the Order to any bid, proposal, or offer of sale is deemed to be limited to the description of the goods and shall not affect or modify these terms and conditions of purchase. In the event of a conflict in terms or conditions, the terms set forth in these Terms and Conditions of Purchase take precedence over any alternative terms in any other document connected with this transaction unless: (a) such alternative terms are part of a written supply agreement ("Supply Agreement") that has been agreed to by the parties and which Supply Agreement expressly indicates that its terms supersede and override terms in these Terms and Conditions of Purchase and/or (b) such alternative terms are set forth on the Face of the Order. Trade usage and course of dealing or performance shall not be employed to vary, explain or supplement these Terms and Conditions of Purchase.

2. Delivery

2.1 Time is of the essence of the Order. Delivery shall not be deemed complete until Strato, Inc, ("Buyer") or Buyer's agent has actually received and taken possession of goods, notwithstanding any agreement to pay freight or other related charges. Seller will promptly notify Buyer in writing if Seller anticipates difficulty in complying with a required delivery date and will use all commercially reasonable efforts to meet the required delivery date. Buyer may, at its discretion, deem goods delivered after the required delivery date or outside of the delivery schedule to be nonconforming and may either return such goods to Seller, at Seller's expense and risk, for full credit; agree to a revised delivery schedule; or cancel the Order or remainder thereof without liability, purchase the goods elsewhere, and charge Seller with any loss incurred through Seller's failure to meet the delivery schedule. Acceptance by Buyer of a later delivery of either the whole or part of the Order shall not constitute a waiver of Buyer's claim for any direct and/or indirect damages which the late delivery may have caused.

2.2 Seller shall suitably pack, mark and ship the goods in accordance with standards and norms for the types of materials being shipped and in accordance with the requirements of the carrier transporting the goods and shall assure delivery free of damage and deterioration. In addition, Seller shall comply with any packing, marking or shipping instructions provided by the Buyer. Buyer shall not be charged for packing, marking or shipping unless same is agreed to with the Seller and is separately itemized on the Face of the Order. Buyer's order number must appear on the container, the packing list, invoice and correspondence relating to the Order. Two copies of the packing list (which provides the quantity and description of the goods contained therein) shall be placed within the container.

2.3 Unless otherwise stated by Buyer on the Face of the Order, for US shipments: (a) Seller shall arrange for freight pursuant to Buyer's instructions; (b) Buyer shall pay for freight on a collect basis; and (c) title to and risk of loss for all goods shall remain with Seller until delivery of the goods to Buyer's facility or such other destination specified by Buyer. Unless otherwise stated by Buyer on the Face of the Order, for international shipments, delivery of goods shall be made FOB named port in accordance with Incoterms 2000.

2.4 Buyer's failure at any time to require strict performance by Seller of any of the provisions herein shall not waive or diminish Buyer's right thereafter to demand strict compliance therewith or with any other provisions. Waiver of any default shall not waive any other default.

3. Pricing

3.1 Unless otherwise stated by Buyer on the Face of the Order, all prices are: (a) firm and not subject to increase or additional charges during the period through fulfillment of the Order; (b) in U.S. dollars; and (c) inclusive of all duty, and taxes other than sales or use taxes Seller is required by law to collect from Buyer. Such sales or use taxes shall not be included in Seller's invoice if the Buyer indicates that the goods or services ordered are exempt from such taxes. Any sales, use or other taxes that Seller is required by law to collect from Buyer shall be separately stated on Seller's invoice.

3.2 Buyer's obligation to pay for items delivered by Seller is limited to the lower of items actually delivered or the quantity of items set forth in this Order. Buyer has no obligation to pay for, set aside, or return items delivered in excess of the quantity ordered herein. All such excess items, at Buyer's option, may be: (a) deemed sold by Seller to Buyer as part of this Order at no additional cost to Buyer beyond the cost of the items specified herein, or (b) returned to the Seller at Seller's expense. Unless agreed to by Buyer on the Face of the Order no additional costs are accepted. This includes, but is not limited to material surcharges.

3.3 Seller shall deliver duplicate invoices to Buyer immediately upon shipment of goods or completion of services. Unless otherwise provided elsewhere in the Order, payment will be: (a) net 120 days from the date of Seller's invoice; or (b) upon receipt of the goods or services, if later.

4. Inventory

Seller shall not anticipate delivery by purchasing materials or manufacturing goods in excess of what is reasonably required to meet Buyer's delivery schedule.

5. Inspection and Rights and Remedies Related Thereto

5.1 Buyer (or Buyer's agent, customer, including any governmental agency) shall have the right, but not the obligation, to inspect goods and services at times and places designated by Buyer before, during or after delivery or performance. If an inspection takes place at the premises of Seller or its suppliers, Seller shall provide, at Seller's expense, all reasonable facilities and assistance to such inspectors. Seller shall maintain a test and inspection system acceptable to Buyer.

5.2 If Buyer determines that any goods provided or services performed under the Order are defective or fail to conform to the requirements of the Order (including Seller's warranties and covenants under these Terms and Conditions of Purchase), Buyer may reject or revoke acceptance of such goods or services and may: (i) terminate all or any part of the Order (as provided hereunder); (ii) repair such goods at Seller's expense; (iii) return such goods to Seller for repair or replacement by Seller (at Seller's risk of loss and expense of unpacking, examining, repacking, and reshipping); (iv) retain such goods or services at an adjusted price. These remedies are in addition to any other remedies provided hereunder, at law, or in equity; or (v) impose a chargeback of $150 for each instance when Buyer determines that any goods provided or services performed under the Order are defective or fail to conform to the requirements of the Order, said chargeback amount being agreed to as reasonable and proper compensation to the Buyer for incurring the administrative time and cost of issuing a Defective Material Report, (DMR).

5.3 All items delivered hereunder are subject to final inspection and acceptance at Buyer's destination, notwithstanding any prior payment or inspection at source. Such inspection will be made within a reasonable time after delivery. Failure to reject or to revoke acceptance of any items shall not be deemed to alter the obligations of Seller or the rights of Buyer under the Warranties clause.

5.4 During performance on this Order, Seller's Quality Control, Inspection system and manufacturing processes are subject for review, verification, analysis, or audit by Buyer's personnel and/or Buyer's authorized representatives to assure conformance to specifications for this Order.

5.5 Any measurement devices used and relied on as a basis to reject or revoke acceptance, shall be calibrated with traceability to the National Institute of Standards and Technology with reports retained for review by buyer upon request.

5.6 Rejected items will be held at Seller's risk and expense, effective upon receipt by Seller of notice of rejection. No replacement of defective items shall be made by Seller unless agreed to by Buyer in writing. The Seller must pay transportation both ways on rejected or incorrect material as well as all expenses of unpacking, examining, repacking and reshipping of goods. When replacement is not to be made, appropriate credit shall be immediately forwarded to Buyer. Buyer may by contract or otherwise replace or correct such goods or services and charge Seller for costs and damages. Payment for any goods or services hereunder shall not be deemed an acceptance thereof.

6. Warranty

6.1 Seller warrants with respect to goods and services provided under the Order that: (a) Seller has clear title, free of all liens and encumbrances; (b) there are no claims of third parties of any nature whatsoever arising out of or related to the goods or services; (c) all goods (including, without limitation, hardware, software, firmware and systems consisting of goods working together) and services are new and in strict conformance with the Order and with the specifications, drawings, samples, designs or other descriptions furnished to or by Buyer, and shall be merchantable, of good quality and workmanship, free from defects in material, design, and workmanship, and fit for Buyer's particular purpose; (d) all services shall be performed in a competent manner in accordance with the requirements of the Order and fulfill the particular purpose intended; (e) prices charged herein are as low as any net price now given by Seller to any other customer for similar goods or services, and if at any time on the later of 120 days from the date of the Order or until the Invoice for the Order has been paid by Buyer, lower prices are quoted anyone for similar goods or services, such lower net prices shall, from that time, be substituted for the prices contained herein; and (f) the sale or use of the goods or services covered by the Order shall not infringe or contribute to the infringement of any patents, trademarks, copyrights, or other proprietary rights.

6.2 If any of the goods and/or services are found to be defective or otherwise not in conformity with the warranties in this Section during the warranty period provided for in Section 6.4 below, then, Buyer, in addition to any other rights, remedies and choices it may have by law, contract or at equity, and in addition to seeking recovery of any and all damages and costs emanating therefrom, at its option and sole discretion and at Seller's expense, may: (a) require Seller to inspect, remove, reinstall, ship and repair or replace/re-perform nonconforming goods and/or services with goods and/or services that conform to all requirements of the Order; (b) take such actions as may be required to cure all defects and/or bring the goods and/or services into conformity with all requirements of the Order, in which event all related costs and expenses (including, but without limitation, material, labor and handling costs) and other reasonable charges shall be for Seller's account; and/or (c) reject and return all or any portion of such goods and/or services.

6.3 These warranties extend to Buyer and to customers and users of Buyer's products or services.

6.4 Unless agreed to the contrary by Buyer and Seller on the Face of the Order or by way of a valid amendment or modification that complies with the requirements of Section 29 below, the warranty period shall commence on the date of Buyer's acceptance of the goods or services and shall extend for a period of five years thereafter or for the longest term provided by applicable law, whichever period is longer. A new warranty period shall commence from the date of acceptance of any repaired or replaced good, or part thereof, or re-performed services.

6.5 If the goods and/or services do not comply with the representations and warranties of Seller, within ten (10) calendar days from Buyer's request, Seller will form a qualified team to perform a failure analysis and will provide such corrective action documents and reports in the form and with the detail requested by Buyer. Seller shall permit Buyer to participate in such process upon Buyer's written notice.

6.6 Seller's warranties shall survive inspection, acceptance, and payment and shall be in addition to any other warranties of Seller, whether express, statutory or implied.

6.7 Remedies for breach of these warranties are cumulative and shall include those provided under these terms and conditions and any available at law or in equity.

7. Termination

7.1 Buyer may terminate all or any part of its purchases under the Order, without liability to Seller, if Seller: (a) fails to deliver goods or perform services within the time and in the quantities and quality required by Buyer or to give adequate assurances as requested by Buyer and thereafter comply with such assurances; (b) breaches the Order terms and conditions (including Seller's warranties and covenants); (c) fails to make progress so as to endanger timely and proper performance of the Order, and such failure is not cured within ten (10) days (or any shorter period which is commercially reasonable under the circumstances) after notice from Buyer; or (d) ceases to conduct its operations in the normal course of business, including inability to meet its obligations as they mature, or if any proceeding under the bankruptcy, insolvency or equivalent laws is brought by or against Seller or a receiver for Seller is appointed or applied for, or an assignment for the benefit of creditors is made by Seller. In addition to obtaining a refund or credit and any other remedies provided herein or available at law or in equity, Buyer may, upon such termination, repurchase substitute goods or services elsewhere, on such terms as Buyer deems appropriate, and charge Seller with any excess costs and losses incurred by Buyer, including consequential and incidental damages.

7.2 Buyer may terminate all or any part of the Order for convenience, in which case: (a) Seller shall, as directed by Buyer, cease work and deliver to Buyer all satisfactorily completed goods or materials and work in process; and (b) Buyer shall pay to Seller termination charges solely limited to the payment of: (i) the Order prices on a per unit basis for satisfactorily completed goods or materials delivered and accepted; and (ii) other than as provided for in (i), the costs of materials, goods and labor that are incurred prior to Seller's knowledge of such termination, provided that Seller takes reasonable steps to mitigate its damages. Seller expressly acknowledges that the termination charges provided for herein are reasonable.

7.3 To the extent not terminated by Buyer, Seller shall continue performance under the Order

7.4 Any termination under Section 7.1 adjudged to be wrongful shall be deemed to then be a termination for convenience under Section 7.2, but with Buyer having the right to avail itself of all of its remedies under these terms and conditions, at law or in equity.

8. Limitation of Liability

8.1 IN NO EVENT SHALL BUYER BE LIABLE FOR ANY SPECIAL, INCIDENTAL, CONSEQUENTIAL OR PUNITIVE DAMAGES ARISING OUT OF OR RELATED TO THE ORDER, INCLUDING ANY TERMINATION, REJECTION, OR REVOCATION OF ACCEPTANCE OF ALL OR ANY PART OF THE ORDER, ALL OF WHICH CATEGORIES OF DAMAGES SELLER ACKNOWLEDGES ARE KNOWINGLY AND EXPRESSLY WAIVED.

8.2 IN NO EVENT SHALL BUYER'S LIABILITY HEREUNDER EXCEED THE PURCHASE PRICE OF THE ORDER.

8.3 In the event this Order is for work to be performed, or goods to be delivered by Seller, on Buyer's premises or the premises of a customer of the Buyer, the Seller hereby assumes entire responsibility and liability for damages or injuries from or occurring in connection with the execution of the work provided for in this Order, and if any person shall make a claim for damage or injury, whether such claim be based upon the Buyer's alleged active or passive negligence or participation in the wrong or upon any alleged breach of statutory duty or obligation on the part of the Buyer, the Seller shall, to the fullest extent permitted by law, assume on behalf of the Buyer the defense of any action at law or inequity, and to pay on behalf of the Buyer, the amount of any judgment that may be entered against the Buyer in any such action.

9. Indemnity

9.1 To the fullest extent permitted by law, Seller shall defend, indemnify and hold harmless Buyer, its affiliates and their respective shareholders, members, directors, officers, employees, customers, agents, authorized representatives, contractors, successors and assigns (collectively the “Buyer Indemnified Parties”) from and against any losses (including damage to property or economic loss), judgments, fines, awards, penalties, damages, costs, expenses, fees, (including attorney fees and other legal expenses) or liabilities (collectively “Liabilities”) arising or resulting from, any claim, demand, suit, action or proceeding, at law, in equity or otherwise (collectively “Proceedings”) related to or in connection with (a) any breach by Seller of its warranties, covenants or obligations hereunder; (b) any injury (including death), property damage, or economic loss; (c) any defective or nonconforming goods or services supplied by Seller under the Order (including any design or manufacturing defects); (d) any acts or omissions of Seller or its employees or subcontractors in providing goods to or performing work, including work at Buyer’s or a customer’s premises or using Buyer’s property, unless resulting from the sole negligence of Buyer Indemnified Parties; and (e) any infringement or contributory infringement of a patent, trademark, copyright, or other proprietary interest (“Infringement”) by reason of the manufacture, delivery, license, use, or sale of the goods supplied or services performed under the Order, regardless whether (a) through (d) arise in tort (including negligence or willful misconduct), contract, warranty, strict liability, or otherwise.

9.2 For any Infringement (as defined above), and without limiting any other remedies available to the Buyer Indemnified Parties, Seller shall, at Seller’s expense, obtain for Buyer a perpetual, royalty-free license with respect to such item, or shall replace or modify the item in a manner satisfactory to Buyer, so as to avoid the infringement without any degradation in performance. Seller’s obligations shall apply even if any of the Buyer Indemnified Parties furnishes any portion of the design or specifies materials or manufacturing processes used by Seller.

9.3 In connection with the defense, indemnity and hold harmless obligations established herein:

- a) The Buyer Indemnified Parties shall give notice to Seller in writing (which may include forwarding to Seller any summons and complaint or other process received by the Buyer Indemnified Parties) of the receipt or pendency of any Proceedings with respect to which Seller is obligated to indemnify, defend and/or hold harmless the Buyer Indemnified Parties from and against any Liabilities. Thereupon, Seller shall proceed to appear, to defend such Proceedings using legal counsel that is reasonably acceptable to the Buyer Indemnified Parties, and to indemnify and hold harmless the Buyer Indemnified Parties from and against the Liabilities arising therefrom or relating thereto; provided, however, that Buyer Indemnified Parties shall provide Seller with reasonable cooperation, information, and assistance in connection with any such Proceeding. Seller shall have control and authority with respect to the defense, settlement, or compromise thereof, provided that the Buyer Indemnified Parties receive a complete release, and any such settlement contains a provision whereby the Indemnified Parties do not admit liability or wrongdoing. Nothing contained herein shall prevent the Buyer Indemnified Parties, at their option, from retaining their own independent counsel at their own expense to either participate in the defense of such Proceeding on a monitoring, non-controlling basis, or to formally appear in any Proceeding on behalf of the Buyer Indemnified Parties.
- b) If Seller fails to assume the defense and settlement of any Proceeding in accordance with the foregoing or, having assumed the defense and settlement of such Proceeding, fails reasonably to contest such Proceeding in good faith, the Buyer Indemnified Parties, without waiving their right to indemnification, may assume the defense and settlement of such Proceeding. Under such circumstances, the Buyer Indemnified Parties may settle such Proceeding without Seller's written consent and Seller will be liable: (a) for the amount of the settlement unless the settlement agreed to by the Buyer Indemnified Parties is deemed by clear and convincing evidence to be outrageously excessive under which circumstances the Seller's responsibility to pay the settlement amount shall be limited to the settlement amount that is deemed to be reasonable; and (b) for any and all costs and expenses incurred by the Buyer connection with the defense and of any Proceeding, including all expenses, costs and attorneys' fees.

- c) It is mutually understood and agreed that the obligations set forth in this Indemnity Section and any other assumption of liabilities and indemnification by Seller provided for in this Agreement shall survive any termination of this Agreement.

 - (vi) Not more frequently than once every three (3) years, Buyer may reasonably modify the required insurance coverage to reflect then-current risk management practices in the railroad industry and underwriting practices in the insurance industry.
 - (vii) Failure to provide evidence as required by this section shall entitle, but not require, Buyer to terminate this Agreement immediately. Acceptance of a certificate that does not comply with this section shall not operate as a waiver of Seller's obligations hereunder.
 - (viii) The fact that insurance is obtained by Seller shall not be deemed to release or diminish the liability of Seller including, without limitation, liability under the indemnity provisions of this Agreement. Damages recoverable by Buyer shall not be limited by the amount of the required insurance coverage.
 - (ix) For purposes of this section, Buyer shall mean Strato, Inc. and its subsidiaries, successors, assigns and affiliates.

11. Compliance with Laws

Seller will monitor the publication by the European Chemicals Agency of the list of substances meeting the criteria for authorization under REACH (the “candidate list”) and immediately notify Buyer if any of the goods supplied to Buyer contain a substance officially proposed for listing on the candidate list.

11.4 Seller represents, warrants, certifies and covenants that none of the goods sold or transferred to Buyer contain: (a) any of the following chemicals: arsenic, asbestos, benzene, beryllium, carbon tetrachloride, cyanide, lead or lead compounds, cadmium, or cadmium compounds, hexavalent chromium, mercury or mercury compounds, trichloroethylene, tetrachloroethylene, methyl chloroform, polychlorinated biphenyls (PCBs), polybrominated biphenyls (PBBs), polybrominated diphenyl ethers (PBDEs); (b) any chemical or hazardous material otherwise prohibited pursuant to Section 6 of the Toxic Substances Control Act (TSCA) (15 U.S.C. 2601 et seq); (c) any chemical or hazardous material otherwise restricted pursuant to EU Directive 2002/95/EC (10 February 2022) (the “ROHS Directive”); (d) any substance listed on the candidate list of REACH or restricted under Annex XVII of REACH; or (e) any other chemical or hazardous material the use of which is restricted in any jurisdiction to or through which Buyer informs Seller the goods are likely to be shipped or to or through which Seller otherwise has knowledge that shipment will likely occur, unless with regard to all of the foregoing, Buyer expressly agrees in writing and Seller identifies an applicable exception from any relevant legal restriction in the inclusion of such chemical or hazardous materials in the goods sold or transferred to Buyer.

11.5 Seller represents, warrants, certifies and covenants that except as specifically listed on the Order or in an applicable addendum, none of the goods supplied under the Order are electrical or electronic equipment under EU Directive 2002/96/EC (10 February 2022) (the “WEEE Directive”), as amended, or any other electrical or electronic equipment take-back requirement of a jurisdiction in which Buyer informs Seller the goods are likely to be sold or in which Seller otherwise has knowledge that a sale will likely occur.

11.6 Seller covenants that it will ensure any suppliers it uses under the Order will be in conformance with this Section 11.

11.7 Seller shall provide all relevant information to allow Buyer to safely use the goods or fulfill its own obligations under applicable requirements, including, without limitation: (a) chemical compositions, including proportions, of any substance, preparation, mixture, alloy or goods supplied under the Order, and any other relevant information regarding the properties including, without limitation, test data and

11.8 Seller represents, warrants, certifies, and covenants that it will uphold the following labor practices concerning forced labor and child labor. Sellers must not use forced labor, including but not limited to, any form of involuntary prison labor, human trafficking, forced, bonded, indentured, or slave labor (collectively "Forced Labor"), and shall not use child labor by employment of children of less than a legally specified age or by utilizing children to do work that is mentally, physically, socially or morally dangerous and harmful to children and/or work that deprives or improperly interferes with the child's opportunity to attend school ("Child Labor"). Seller shall ensure and must be able to certify that materials in their products have not been manufactured using, or otherwise obtained from, companies that use Forced Labor or Child Labor or that participate in human trafficking and on request shall certify as to the steps that Seller is taking to ensure that modern slavery and labor exploitation by way of Forced Labor, Child Labor, or otherwise, are not taking place in their business or in their supply chain.

12. Changes

12.1 Buyer may, at any time, make changes in the Order, including changes in the quantity, delivery time or place, shipping or packing method, or any drawings, specifications or designs. If such a change causes a material increase or decrease in the cost of, or the time required for, performance of the Order, Seller shall notify Buyer in writing immediately. Any claim by Seller for an adjustment in time for performance or price must be asserted in writing within ten (10) days from date of notification of a change. No change shall be binding on Buyer unless agreed, in writing, by an officer of Buyer.

12.2 Seller will not make any change in the design, processing, packing, marking, shipping or date or place of delivery of the goods supplied under the Order unless done pursuant to Buyer's instructions or with Buyer's written approval.

13. Disputes

13.1 Any dispute arising under this Order which is not resolved by agreement shall initially be decided by Buyer. Such initial decision shall be reduced to writing, and a copy thereof mailed or otherwise furnished to Seller. Within thirty days (30) after date of receipt of Buyer's initial decision, Seller may notify Buyer in writing of Seller's disagreement with the decision. In the absence of such notice, such initial decision shall be final. In the event Seller notifies Buyer of its disagreement with Buyer's initial decision and on condition that Seller complies with Section 13.2 below, Seller may appeal Buyer's initial decision by pursuing within one year after Seller's thirty (30) day notice of disagreement with Buyer's initial decision, any right or remedy it may have against Buyer at law or in equity in any court of competent jurisdiction.

13.2 Pending the final resolution of the dispute by court decision or agreement between the parties, Seller shall diligently proceed with the performance of this order in accordance with the decision of Buyer pursuant to paragraph 13.1 above, except to the extent that the decision is that Seller is not to proceed with the performance of all or a particular part of this Order.

14. Buyer's Property & Information

14.1 All tools, dies, molds, templates, equipment, specifications, data, drawings, designs, software or materials furnished by Buyer to Seller or paid for by Buyer, including replacements and materials attached thereto, shall remain and be marked as the personal property of Buyer. Such items shall be separately stored and insured by Seller, and Seller assumes all risk of loss and liability arising out of or related to the items, until such items are returned to Buyer. These items shall be used by Seller only for filling Buyer's order and are subject to immediate removal and/or disposal, at Buyer's written request, with each item to be delivered (at Seller's expense) in its original condition, reasonable wear and tear excepted.

14.2 Seller shall provide to Buyer, without restriction on use or disclosure, all information and documents that Seller has or shall develop or acquire related to the work Seller is performing under the Order. Such information and documents shall be deemed to be "works for hire" and be the property of Buyer, with Buyer having a right of use for any purpose, without liability to Seller. All information and documents Buyer may have disclosed or shall disclose to Seller in connection with the goods to be delivered or services provided under the Order shall be deemed confidential and proprietary and shall not be disclosed or used by Seller without the written consent of an officer of Buyer.

15. Government Contracts

If the product or services to be delivered or performed under the Order are for the purpose of enabling Buyer to perform a government contract or subcontract, the Order incorporates by reference any clauses required to be included by such government contract or subcontract or by any applicable law, ordinance, rule or regulation, so that the Order will be in compliance with any applicable governmental law, ordinance, code, rule, regulation or other requirement, including but not limited to those relative to affirmative action, non-discrimination, and equal employment opportunity including the equal employment opportunity clause in Section 202 of Executive Order 11246 of September 24, 1965, as amended by Executive Order 11375 of October 13, 1967, Revised Order No. 4 of December 4, 1971, Section 402 of the Vietnam Era Veteran's Readjustment Assistance Act of 1974, as amended, Section 211 of Public Law 95-507, as amended, and Section 503 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, as amended.

16. Business Continuity Plan

Seller will have and comply with a business continuity plan for restoring its critical business functions. Buyer reserves the right to request information in connection with such plan, conduct on-site audits of Seller's facility and practices to determine whether such plan and Seller's implementation of such plan are reasonably sufficient to protect Buyer's interest. If Buyer reasonably determines that Seller's business continuity plan and/or such plan implementation is/are insufficient to protect Buyer's property and interests, Buyer may give Seller notice of such determination. Upon receiving such notice, Seller shall have forty-five (45) days thereafter to make such plan changes and take the implementation actions reasonably requested by Buyer.
